

Advanced Livestock Management and Dog Handling School

By Neil McDonald

Neil McDonald has over 20 years of running this course across Australia and much longer working with livestock and working dogs. He will teach you the importance of livestock handling and how it has a direct impact on your business. You will learn that with greater awareness and attention to detail coupled with the use of controlled working dogs, you can create livestock behavioural changes. You can read more about Neil and his course in the Dec/Jan 2010 Outback Magazine.

Course Details:

3rd, 4th and 5th March 2010

At the Coolina Stock Yards, Narngulu (Geraldton)

Course cost is $825. Lunch, morning and afternoon tea will be an additional cost. Camping facilities will be available at the stockyards.

It is recommended that you bring along your working dogs, however, if you are unable to, Neil will make his available for you to use at the school.

This course is FarmReady accredited (course code FRTC00210). If you are eligible for FarmReady funding for this course you may be able to claim for all, or some of, the cost of the course, accommodation, travel and childcare. Please go to www.farmready.gov.au or call 1800 087 670 for more information. Please note that you must apply for FarmReady prior to the commencement of the course.

For more information please contact Darryn Browne on 0407 080 150 or Viv Gill on 9935 1073.

Registration required by 20th February. Numbers are limited.